All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine. The defendant shall possess and use only those computers and computer-related devices, screen user names, passwords, email accounts, and internet service providers (ISPs), which have been disclosed to the Probation Officer upon commencement of supervision. Any changes or additions are to be disclosed to the Probation Officer prior to the first use. Computers and computer-related devices are personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), internet appliances, electronic games, cellular telephones, and digital storage media, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access, the internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers. 8. The defendant shall submit to a search, at any time, with or without warrant, and by any law enforcement or probation officer, of the defendant's person and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects upon reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct by the defendant, or by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions;
9. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of such program, except that he need not submit to any Abel or Phelsmography testing. However, the defendant may be required to undergo polygraph testing. The defendant's refusal to answer any questions on the basis of the Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination shall not be considered a basis for finding the defendant in violation of the terms of supervised release. The Probation Officer shall disclose the presentence report or any previous mental health evaluations or reports to the treatment provider;

12. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall, to the extent he is able, pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's psychological/psychiatric disorder(s) to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672.
